2010 Summer Picnic

This year the 2010 NMRA Division Eight Picnic will be at the Salem Monon Railroad Depot. The date will be 31 July 2010 at we should plan to arrive at about noon. This is a replica of the original railroad station that served Salem for 70 years and has tremendous displays of depot furnishings and antiques, advertisements, a working depot office and a large HO Scale model railroad layout in the basement. We will have a box lunch that includes a turkey, ham or roast beef sandwich, bag of chips and a cookie. We will need to know your selection. The cost for lunch will be $5.00 and we'll have some cokes available.

The Depot at Salem, Indiana

Please contact one of the points of contact below and let them know you are coming and what your lunch selection is. Please let us know no later than Sunday, July 25TH, 2010 so that we can plan accordingly. If you wish, you can mail your payment to the primary point of contact or just bring it with you on the day of the picnic. Either way, we need your response one week before the picnic.
